1 MR. CONSTANTINE: We have a couple of housekeeping
2 issues.

3 THE COURT: Yes.

4 MR. CONSTANTINE: One is on the exhibits to be used.

5 THE COURT: I have another issue. I received a motion
6 to quash but I don't think I receive a response.

7 MR. SCUPP: We'll be filing the response by the end of 8 the week.

9 THE COURT: All right. I can tell you what my 10 reaction is is that you need in that response you need to give 11 me a compelling reason why the chairman and chief executive 12 officer of HBO has some relevant testimony to give. So, if you 13 really think this is important you've got to lay it out because 14 as I say most litigation just because the other side says I'm 15 suing Microsoft and I want Bill Gates to testify. You have got 16 to tell me what Bill Gates has go to say about the case. Has 17 absolutely no personal knowledge of any of the facts of this 18 case and would not pay more money because of the store any 19 relevant testimony to give. So you would pay more money
20 because of the store to articulate and be very specific why
21 it's unique other than wanting to drag in a CEO that makes him
22 compelling as a witness but I'll wait --

23 MR. SCUPP: We'll do that, your Honor.

24 MR. CONSTANTINE: I think there are a couple 25 housekeeping issues, your Honor, that were raised at the -- at
